BOMBAY ACT No. IV OF 1862.

(The assent of the Governor General of India to this Act was first published by the Governor of Bombay on the 24th April, 1862.)

An Act for regulating the establishment of markets and fairs.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the establishment of new markets or fairs in the neighbourhood of places where markets or fairs have been previously established leads to disputes between the owners of the lands on which such new and previously established markets or fairs are held, and such disputes not unfrequently occasion breaches of peace and serious inconvenience to the frequenters of such markets or fairs; It is enacted as follows:—

No new market or fair to be established without permission.

1. [a]No person shall establish a new market or fair without permission, in writing, from the Magistrate of the district.

[a] Words repealed by Act XII of 1873 are omitted.
